Underwater Housing for Canon S95

Made of 6061 aluminum, the 10Bar housing is the ideal choice for the 10MP Canon S95 compact camera, which features a fast f/2.0 lens and a high sensitivity sensor. The housing is equipped with control buttons to access all camera functions, and the acrylic back cover allows taking pictures and checking on the camera much easier. For closure, the double o-ring and key-hole lock design provide ease of use and added security. If small camera is your preference, the amazing S95 with the 10Bar housing ensures excellent results whether it's photos or 720p HD videos, on land or under the ocean.
